

The Cincinnati Waldorf School invites candidates to apply for the following position:

Eurythmy Teacher

The Cincinnati Waldorf School is seeking to expand our Eurythmy program. We are recruiting for a trained Eurythmy Teacher to join our well established Eurythmy program led by our lead Eurythmist, Connie Michael. The exact teaching schedule and start time will be determined based on the qualifications and availability of our prime candidate.

Our school values excellent skills in teaching, classroom management, communication, and collegial and parent relationships, as well as depth in spiritual work and understanding of students and their development. We seek educators who understand and work with the Anthroposophical foundations of the curriculum, bring enthusiasm to build community and participate fully in our rich festival life.

We are committed to having experienced, trained, Waldorf teachers. The ideal teacher candidate will have Waldorf training, Eurythmy training and successful experience working in a Waldorf school. Our faculty must hold a minimum of a bachelors degree. A Waldorf Teaching Certificate or degree is desired. Student teachers or interns are encouraged to apply as well.

The Cincinnati Waldorf School has provided a strong, social education for 40 years and we continue to experience sustained growth and retention. Our current enrollment of over 250 students represents a wide diversity across neighborhood, economics, ethnicity and lifestyle.

Our school building is located in the historical village of Mariemont, known for it's family-friendly walking community and "Tree City" dedication.

Our strong programming includes parent-child classes, pre-school, kindergarten, as well as Grades 1 through 8, Eurythmy, Spanish, Handwork, Games, Woodwork, and Music.

If you are interested, please submit a cover letter and a resume listing background, training, experience, and three references. Call or write Christine Masur, Administrative Team Leader, at 513-541-0220 extension 203 or cmasur@cinciwaldorf.org.
